

The third set at one time looked a certainty for Cordier, but Fischer was equal to the occasion, and brought the set out of the fire after Cordier had been within a point three times. The score then stood two sets to one in Fischer's favor, and, as it was quickly becoming dark, it was agreed to continue the match on Wednesday.

While the Fischer-Cordier match was in progress, the finals of the consolation men's singles were taking place on another court. E. A. Crowninshields and A. S. Taylor, by their victories over A. W. Putnam and F. S. Parker, met in the finals, and a four-set match was a result. Taylor, who played chiefly from the back of the court, passed Crowninshields repeatedly and won three sets to one.

The scores:

Men's Singles.—Final Round—Edwin P. Fischer (owe half forty) against C. X. Cordier, (half thirty,) 10—12, 6—2, 8—6, (unfinished.)

Consolation Men's Singles.—Semi-Final Round—E. A. Crowninshields (owe half fifteen) beat A. W. Putnam, (half thirty,) 6—2, 6—1.

A. S. Taylor (owe half fifteen) beat F. S. Parker, (fifteen,) 7—5, 4—6, 7—5.

Final Round—A. S. Taylor (owe half fifteen) beat E. A. Crowninshields, (owe half fifteen,) 6—4, 6—0, 0—6, 6—4.

City College Will Have New Teams.

Only three of last year's football team have returned to the City College this year. Those interested in the sport at the college have realized the importance of getting immediately to work. Candidates for the team were called for last week, and over thirty men responded. Two teams will be formed. The college has always in the past preferred team work to individual practice, and will pursue the same course this season. A meeting is to be held Wednesday afternoon, at which definite plans will be agreed upon. A committee of three is to be appointed, which will select the two elevens from the candidates, who are expected largely to increase during the next few weeks.

FISCHER IN THE LEAD.

The West Side Tennis Club Final Match Unfinished.

The final match in the men's singles of the West Side Tennis Club handicap tournament furnished plenty of excitement to the many who witnessed it yesterday on the club courts, at Central Park West and Eighty-ninth Street. Edwin P. Fischer, who owed half forty, and C. X. Cordier, with half thirty, were the contestants. Fischer, in consequence of the large handicap he was conceding, had to confine himself to steady play, and could not indulge in any brilliant shots.

The score in the first set see-sawed until ten all was called, when Cordier took the next two games and set. Fischer, in the second set, by continued driving to his opponent's back-hand, showed to advantage his power of volleying high balls, and Cordier only got two games on the set.
